

En Pointe Technologies Receives Extension From Nasdaq

Los Angeles, CA – July 29, 2003 – En Pointe Technologies, Inc. (Nasdaq: ENPT), a leading national provider of business-to-business information technology products and services, announced today that it has received notification from the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel that it has been granted an additional 180-day period, or until January 12, 2004, to evidence compliance with Nasdaq's $1.00 per share minimum bid price requirement. Nasdaq Marketplace Rules require that the Company's common stock bid price close at or above $1.00 per share for a minimum of ten consecutive trading days at any time prior to January 12, 2004. Should the Company fail to remedy the bid price deficiency by January 12, 2004, Nasdaq will notify the Company that its securities will be delisted from the Nasdaq SmallCap Market and the Company will have the right to appeal such determination. There can be no assurance that the Company's common stock will be able to meet the per share minimum bid price requirement and remain listed on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market.

Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. In addition, from time to time, En Pointe Technologies, or its representatives, have made or may make forward-looking statements, orally or in writing. The words "estimate," "project," "potential," "intended," "expect," "anticipate," "believe" and similar expressions or words are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may be included in, but are not limited to, various filings made by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission, press releases or oral statements made with the approval of an authorized executive officer of the Company. Actual results could differ materially from those projected or suggested in any forward-looking statements as a result of a wide variety of factors and conditions. Reference is hereby made to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002, for information regarding those factors and conditions. Among the important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from management's projections, estimates and expectations include, but are not limited to: Failure to meet the continued listing requirements of the Nasdaq SmallCap market; decreased liquidity in the Company's common stock as a result of delisting from the Nasdaq SmallCap Market; decreased securities analyst and/or news media coverage of the Company as a result of delisting from the Nasdaq SmallCap Market; increased regulation under the SEC's "penny stock" rules if the Company's securities are traded on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board; changing economic influences in the industry; dependence on key personnel; actions of manufacturers and suppliers; and, availability of adequate financing.
