Friday June 9, 5:00 pm ET

LOS ANGELES, June 9 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- En Pointe Technologies, Inc. (Nasdaq: ENPT - News) today announced that it was selected as the Category IV Supplier of the Year by the NCSDC. A Category IV Supplier is defined as a supplier whose revenues are in excess of Fifty Million ($50,000,000) Dollars per year. En Pointe was nominated for this prestigious award by Union Bank of California, N.A., a major enterprise customer to which En Pointe provides a variety of Information Technology products and IT-related services.

"En Pointe is honored to be recognized by the NCSDC for our dedication and support to delivering comprehensive solutions for such clients as Union Bank of California," stated Richard Emil, En Pointe Vice President of Service. "Through the development and integration of multiple systems, coupled with extensive national field and logistics resources, our Program Management Office (PMO) is positioned to offer seamless technology lifecycle management."

"We began working with En Pointe because of their size and service area. They also compliment the communities serviced by Union Bank. We continue to nurture this relationship because En Pointe has demonstrated flexibility, accountability, and a positive response to our IT needs," stated Julie LeDuc, Vice President, ITG Procurement.

"We were extremely honored by this recognition from the Northern California Supplier Development Council and the nomination by Union Bank," said Bob Din, CEO of En Pointe. "This award is a great reflection on all of the hard work and effort En Pointe's associates put into supporting great customers like the Bank."
