

Major PC Maker grants En Pointe Gov Inc. Letter of Supply

En Pointe Gov now authorized to sell Lenovo notebook and desktop PCs to Federal Agencies on its GSA schedule

Los Angeles – January 17, 2008 – En Pointe Gov, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of En Pointe Technologies, Inc. (NASDAQ:ENPT), announced today that it has received a letter of supply from Lenovo and subsequent authorization from GSA to sell Lenovo products to federal customers on En Pointe Gov's GSA Schedule contract.

"En Pointe Gov is excited about its expanded relationship with Lenovo to serve its federal government customers. Adding this award-winning product family will help En Pointe Gov and Lenovo target new federal government customer opportunities," said Kevin Schatzle, Senior Vice President of En Pointe Gov, Inc.

As a federal government marketer and reseller, En Pointe Gov supplies a wide range of computer products and services on its GSA Schedule contract to federal government agencies through letters of supply that the Company now holds from some of the industry's leading manufacturers.

Schatzle said, "We are offering federal government customers innovative products and what we believe to be time-saving procurement solutions to help them accomplish their missions. One of En Pointe Gov's key objectives is to bring value to its federal customers by collaborating with industry-leading companies like Lenovo."

En Pointe Gov offers benefits to the federal market including:

- Extensive selection of Lenovo's notebook and desktop PCs
- eProcurement – federal customers can purchase online GSA Schedule products on www.enpointegov.com
- Software licensing solutions
- Dedicated sales support

En Pointe Gov currently has over 15 manufacturers on its GSA schedule.
